

Stormwater Management Division

Residential Permit Application Guidance

Completion of this form shall be used as guidance by the applicant

For more detailed stormwater requirements, please reference pages 48-142 of the County Design Criteria. For any questions regarding requirements, please contact the DPW Stormwater Management Division at 831-454-2160

PROJECT INFORMATION

- 1) Does the project include new or replaced impervious / semi-impervious area of 5,000 SF or more?

No. Yes. If yes, then:

Submit a "Project Information and Threshold Determination Form."

Submit a Final Stormwater Management Plan (see Section II.B of the Design Criteria Appendix D for details).

Submit a maintenance schedule, if the project proposes a permanent mitigation feature(s) (see Section II.F of the Design Criteria Appendix D for details).

Submit a Final Stormwater Management Report (see Section II.E of the Design Criteria for details).

- 2) Does the project include new or replaced impervious / semi-impervious area of between 500 SF and 5,000 SF?

No. Yes. If yes, then:

Submit a "Project Information and Threshold Determination Form."

Submit a Final Stormwater Management Plan (see Section II.B of the Design Criteria Appendix C for details).

Submit a maintenance schedule, if the project proposes a permanent mitigation feature(s) (see Section II.E of the Design Criteria Appendix C for details).

- 3) Does the project include new or replaced impervious / semi-impervious area of 500 SF or less?

No. Yes. If Yes, then:

Submit a "Project Information and Threshold Determination Form."

Submit a Final Stormwater Management Plan (see Section II.B of the Design Criteria Appendix B for details).